Why should you get financing?

It's simple: You can have the home of your dreams without draining your bank account. Financing gives you options whether you're in a bind and need cash quickly or want to hold onto your cash for other projects.

Is Buildertrend Financing secure?

Yes. Buildertrend is partnering with Nelnet Bank, member FDIC, to provide efficient and secure funding for your project.

Why is Buildertrend Financing the best option for your home renovation loan?

We offer competitive rates and quick decisions without the hassle of paperwork. And since your builder's already using Buildertrend, you'll have everything in one place.

How does it work?

Your contractor will include a link to apply in your proposal. Once approved, and your loan documents are signed, your contractor will be directly paid in stages based on your sign-off. Nelnet Bank also offers easy-to-use tools for homeowners to manage repayment.
